The New Illustrated Edition of Webster's Dictionary.—This seemingly dry and certainly ponderous book has its peculiar charm. Here is collected and tersely set down a vast quantity of various and useful knowledge, such as is indispensable to clucated men and women. Here are an hundred and fourieen thousand words, defined with a clearness, fullness, precision, and wealth of illustration, that denote the soundest scholarspip, and the most entire fidelity to laborious details. Allogether the work is a marvelous receiver of learning tasks, and thorough labor. specimen of learning, taste, and thorough labor. We praise it heartily, because we believe it deserves the heartiest praise .- New York Albion.

A SAD CALAMITY.

On Saturday morning last, LORIN PALMER TEFFT was shot and instantly killed, by being mistaken for a deer. It occurred near Washington Station, Henry County, and under the following circumstances: Mr. TRFFT, in company with his brother, GARDNER TEFFT, and JEFF. W. GALLAGHER, went into the woods for the purpose of hunting deer. They soon came upon some tracks, which led into a thicket, and this thicket Mr. Gullaguen and PALMER TEFFT approached from opposite sides. Mr. TEFFT got into the thicket and was stealthily creeping through the bushes in a stooping position. Mr. GALLAGUER, who was on the alert for the game, saw the movement, and, convinced that it was a deer in the set of starting up, raised his gun and fired. "Jayr., you have shot me," was the exclamation of TEFFT. Horror-stricken, Mr. GALLAGINE ran to the spot, and raising him up, Mr. TEFFT expired in a moment or two in his arms. Five buck-shot entered his person. One struck him on the right leg, a short distance above the knee; three took effect in his right arm, and the fatal shot just grazed his chin, went through his throat, and passed out at the back of the nock. This shot severed the wind-pipe, and the lungs rapidly filled with blood, and he soon expired. Mr. TEFFT was for many years a citizen of this place, but for the past four or five years has resided at Washington Station, and at the of hims death be and Mr. Gallague. W. MISCELLANEOUS.

A Positive Remedy for all kinds of Humors. Scrofula, Scurvy, Salt-Rheum, Carbuncles and Boils, Ulcers and all obstinate Affections of the Skin, Inflammatory or Chronic Rheumatism, Piles, Chronic Diarrhea, Mercurial Diseases, and every taint of the System; Dyspepsia, and those Affections originating in the Derangement of the Digestive Organs; viz., Billous Complaints, Neuralgia, and Nerveus Affections, Headache, Languor, and Depression of Spirits, Loss of Appetite, Constipution.

Tills excellent medicinal compound was first prepared by Dr. J. W. POLAND, in 1847, And was then employed with great success in expelling humors from the blood; but in 1885 a medical friend who was quite celebrated as a physi-cian, especially in the treatment of humors, suggested some important improvements, which were adopted, and which has made it (so the people say) the very best remedy for all kinds of humors known to "the faculty."

This preparation is composed entirely of vegets oles, among which are Sarsaparilla, Yehow Dock, Noble Pine, Mandrake, and Bloodroot.

When the originator fived in New Hampshire, at Goffstown Centre, for the space of thirty or forty miles around, and in Manchester particularly, the Humor Doctor was well known and highly valued for the numerous and wonderful cures which it ef-fected. Though manufactured in large quantities, the supply was frequently exhausted, and purchasers had to wait for more to be made. In that region, some very severe cases of Erysipelas were treated with. - and they were cured! Erysipolas sores, or carbineles, - those ugly, painful alcers, were entirely removed wherever this menicine was faithfully used. So it was with Scrofula and Salt-Rheum. The Humor Doctor cured them.

It is free from any dangerous drugs, is pleasant to the taste, safe, yet sure and effective in its action,
